CEPTED. To the Cincinnati Press:

COLUMBUS, May 30. FREEMEN OF ORIO: By telegram just received from Secretary Stanton, I am authorized to accept volunteers for three months until the 10th day of June. All are required to report at Camp Chase, and be mustered in service that day. Pay will commence from date of mustering in. None but 18 and 45, will be accepted. I am also authorized to raise additional regiments for three years or during the war.

Relying upon the loyal men of all ages to aid me in promptly responding to the President's call, that Ohio may rank among the first in crushing out the unholy rebellion, I close this appeal.
